New Revenue Stream to Grow Your Business

Become a myStaffingPro Partner.

myStaffingPro[®]

myStaffingPro joins forces with industry experts to provide increased knowledge and end-to-end talent management functionality. We are always looking for solid business partners to build a mutually beneficial relationship or integration.

Over the years, we have strived to develop and market the most complete recruitment and onboarding solution possible to our customers. myStaffingPro's offerings meet and exceed the robust requirements of our valued clients.

How it works

Our Partner Program offers you three ways to build revenue:

Referrer

Earn revenue for connecting us with decision makers who could benefit from the myStaffingPro applicant tracking system. Simply provide us with the referral information, and we pursue the lead. When your referral becomes a customer, we will send you a check.

Reseller

Equip your sales team with the knowledge and power to control the sales cycle with your prospects. We offer continued support along the way.

Certified Integration Partner

With a standardized, certified integration, the partnership can benefit both companies' referral efforts, maximizing our joint return on investment.

Our product suite streamlines, simplifies, and drives the applicant workflow and hiring processes for companies of all sizes. Expanded capabilities include: managing the onboarding process, standardizing new-hire paperwork, and securing data for import into other HR systems.

As a partner, you may access:

- Increased revenue opportunities
- Expanded product line that increases your competitive advantage
- Affiliation with a leader in applicant tracking
- Referral commission or preferential pricing opportunities
- Full marketing support when selling our products
- Increased market reputation & market share
- Much, much more...

myStaffingPro is a full-featured SaaS applicant tracking system, providing HR professionals with the tools they need to recruit, qualify, track, hire, and onboard the best candidates. We now offer all the tools you need to introduce these great products to your customers. We are committed to this partnership and are here to support your business growth.

Let's continue building your business.
